Equal Justice Works Fellowship Opportunity

Legal Aid Society of Eastern Virginia, a non-profit public interest law firm serving the poverty community in civil matters, seeks diverse and dynamic applicants for a two-year, full-time attorney position as an Equal Justice Works Fellow in the Housing Justice Program. This is a unique opportunity for new attorneys to engage in community lawyering and impact litigation. Equal Justice Works is the nation's largest facilitator of opportunities in public interest law.

Applicants must be a member in good standing of the Virginia State Bar, be awaiting Virginia bar results, or eligible to waive in as a Virginia Legal Aid Counsel by having at least two years' experience in good standing in another state bar. All Fellows are expected to fulfill the complete duration of the Fellowship and will be required to sign a Fellowship Agreement with Equal Justice Works. Salary commensurate with experience, with an excellent benefits package. Email resume and writing sample to sherryh@laseva.org. LASEV is an Equal Opportunity Employer.
