

Host Site: Public Law Center of Orange County

Project: Crime Victims Advocacy

Location: Santa Ana, CA

Description of Fellow Project:

The Equal Justice Works Crime Victims Advocacy Program (CVAP) is mobilizing a cohort of law students to increase access to legal aid for survivors of crime, especially in underserved black, Indigenous and people of color (BIPOC) communities.

Student Fellows will spend ten weeks working alongside Equal Justice Works post-graduate Crime Victims Advocacy Program Fellows, while developing valuable skills and gaining hands-on experience in crime victims advocacy. Students earn $7,000 for working ten weeks during the summer of 2024.

At Public Law Center, the Student Fellow may work on the following to increase access to justice for survivors of crime:

- Victim advocacy and representation
- Community outreach and education
- Additional civil legal services

Applicant Qualifications:

- Commitment to social justice
- Excellent writing, communication, interpersonal, and organizational skills
- Ability to work as a team member
